CONSERVATION MEASURES AND CATCH LIMITS

6. Catch and release is actively encouraged by the Club. All salmon caught in Club waters, up to and until 30th June must be returned.
7. Rules and conservation policies governing salmon catches have been decided by the Executive Committee in consultation with the Cromarty Firth Fishery Board. In 2017 the number of salmon an angler may take per season is limited to only six (6). After an angler has taken his or her limit then they may continue to fish on a Catch and Release basis only.
8. All fish under 10 inches in length shall be returned carefully to the water immediately.
9. All salmon kelts shall be returned carefully to the water immediately.
10. All undamaged hen salmon/grilse must be returned carefully to the water during the month of September. All gravid or coloured fish should be returned carefully to the river. Barbless hooks are recommended in all Club salmon waters during the month of September.
11. Conservation policies regarding salmon are reviewed regularly and updated. Please consult and follow these policies.
12. Only knotless landing nets may be used. The use of a gaff is prohibited.
13. The number of trout that may be retained by boat anglers is five (5) per rod up to a maximum of ten (10) per boat where there are two anglers in the boat. [Loch Meig only].
14. The number of trout that may be retained by an angler fishing from the bank is restricted to two (2) per day. [Loch Meig only].
15. NO FISH CAUGHT ON CLUB WATERS MAY BE SOLD.
16. The holder of a salmon fishing permit is required to make a return of all fish caught within 24 hours of each catch with details of the lure used – fly or spinning.
17. The use of ANY form of bait is STRICTLY PROHIBITED on any of the Club waters. Bait includes prawn, shrimp, maggot, worm, dead bait, live minnow or any other live fish.

CLUB WATERS

18. Members and permit holders are entitled to fish on the under noted fishings according to the Club's rules.
- (a) Loch Meig Bank and boat fishing – traditional fly fishing only. No trolling of flies is permitted. 1st April to 6th October – no booking is necessary for bank fishing. Four boats are available on this loch and these must be booked in advance from the Club's booking agents and a permit obtained for their use. Sunday fishing is permitted. The Club also has a Wheelyboat on this loch for use by disabled anglers.
- (b) Loch Achonachie Bank and boat fishing – fly & spinning permitted for Salmon, brown trout and sea trout. 1st April to 30th September – no booking is necessary for bank fishing. Two boats are available on this loch and these must be booked in advance from the Club's booking agents and a permit obtained for their use. Salmon may be taken from this loch. Sunday fishing is permitted from 2016 but for FLY FISHING ONLY
- (c) Loch Scardroy Bank and boat fishing – fly & spinning 1st April to 30th September – no booking is necessary for bank fishing but bank fishing is permitted. Two boats are available on this loch and these must be booked in advance from the Club's booking agents and a permit obtained for their use. Sunday fishing is permitted.
- (d) Upper Conon River Bank fishing (both banks) – fly and spinning permitted for Salmon, brown trout and sea trout. 1st April to 30th September – there are three (3) rods per beat allowed on the four beats (2 north and 2 south) on the river. Spinning is permitted only when the Lochluichart Power Station is generating. Pools should be shared equally and normal fishing etiquette should be observed. Permits must be booked in advance from the Club's booking agents. Sunday fishing is NOT permitted.
- (e) Upper Blackwater Bank fishing (both banks) – fly and spinning permitted for salmon and brown trout. 1st April to 30th September for trout and salmon. There are nine (9) rods allowed on the Upper Blackwater which is a roving beat on both sides of the river. Spinning is permitted only when the red marker is covered. (The Club water extends from the pool immediately above Rogie Falls to the pool where the water flows out of Loch Na Croic). Members are strictly forbidden to fish in Loch Na Croic. Pools should be shared equally and normal fishing etiquette should be observed. Permits must be booked in advance from the Club's booking agents. Sunday fishing for salmon is NOT permitted.

Please Note: When fishing the rivers, anglers must move down each salmon pool by taking a step forward after every cast. On reaching the bottom of a pool, and if the angler wishes to fish the pool again, he/she must take his/her turn again at the head of the pool. On an angler landing a fish, he/she must then move back to the head of the pool and again take his/her turn.

GENERAL

19. Permits are available only for the person in whose favour they are granted. Permits are strictly Non-Transferable. Only one permit per rod can be granted and issued.
20. The holder of a permit, membership card and log book must exhibit it at all times when asked to do so by the River Watcher, Water Bailiff, any member of the Club or other authorized person. Failure to comply may result in being asked to leave the water.
21. Holders of daily permits must complete the catch details on the permit and return the completed permits to the Club's booking agents at the end of the day's fishing.
22. No member may book or have booked on their behalf more than one day's fishing on a particular river beat. A member can then book a further day or session after the permit has expired or on surrender of his or her permit to the ticket agent. Any such booking must be paid for in advance.
23. Access to loch banks shall be by routes to be prescribed from time to time.
24. All reasonable precautions must be taken to prevent disturbance to stock and game and no dogs should accompany anglers. All gates should be closed after opening.
25. No fires must be lit on loch or river banks and no litter should be left behind on banks or in the fishing huts. All litter – especially discarded line – should be taken away and disposed of safely at home. PLEASE REMEMBER THAT IT IS AGAINST THE LAW TO LITTER.
26. All boats used must be returned to the mooring from whence they were taken and secured properly. Keys for boat padlocks and gates must be returned to the booking agents from where they were collected.
27. Application for renewal of Membership, with the appropriate subscription fee, must be in the hands of the Treasurer not later than 31st March each year. Late receipt of renewal applications will result in a £5.00 surcharge being applied. Any membership not renewed by [1st June] will be treated as lapsed. The lapsed membership will be treated as a new application if the former member wishes to join again.
28. In addition to the new requirements for salmon catches, members must keep an accurate record of all fish caught, retained and returned during the season and make a return of these details to the Club Secretary by 1 November each year. Nil returns are required./

28 (cont)

Failure to make returns will result in a member being surcharged on renewal of their membership. Any continuing failure will result in membership being withdrawn.

29. Club members shall be expected to give every assistance in their power to prevent illegal fishing, poaching and infringements of the Club rules.
30. All members are responsible for any club boats or equipment on hire to them. Any accidental damage or loss to boats and/or equipment must be reported to the club Secretary immediately.

Safety

31. Lifejackets must be worn in boats. These can be obtained free of charge from the Club's booking agents.
32. No boat permits will be issued to persons under 18 years of age and not more than three (3) persons (only 2 rods fishing) shall occupy a boat simultaneously
33. All junior members fishing Club waters must be accompanied by an adult.
34. The volume of water flowing into the Upper Conon river is largely dependent on the operational requirements of Scottish and Southern Electricity plc from time to time and no guarantee of redress can be given in this respect by the Club or by Scottish and Southern Electricity plc. The fluctuations in water levels are considerable, sudden, and no prior warning is given.
35. The Club and Scottish and Southern Electricity plc shall have no responsibility for loss, damage or injury of whatever nature incurred by the bearer of a membership card or permit, who fishes Club waters entirely at their own risk.

Infringement of Rules

36. Members or permit holders infringing any of the Club rules and regulations or who may be caught and/or convicted of illegal fishing or any offence under the ACTS relating to salmon/sea trout/brown trout fishing shall forfeit their membership or suffer such penalty as deemed fit by the Executive Committee of the Club. Such forfeiture or penalty shall be sufficiently instructed by a letter under the hand of the Secretary of Loch Achonachie Angling Club directed to the member at the address shown on their application form.
37. Any breaches of Club rules/conservation methods etc noted by a member should - be reported to the Club Secretary as soon as possible.
